	a PBJ under Maryland law wipes out the conviction, but NOT under Federal Immigration Law. Under this bill a court could suspend all of a sentence of an illegal immigrant and thus not be reportable as a conviction to Federal authorities.
SB 0317	Establishes a Right to Counsel for any individual in immigration detention in MD or MD resident in detention in another State. Authorizes non-profits to conduct outreach services and provide legal services at MD taxpayers' expense. Establishes Office of Right to Counsel Immigration Coordinator in the AG's office. Local Jurisdictions can set up similar offices and State budget shall fund them.	JPC – Hearing on 1/27 at 11 a.m.; Str. Hettleman	1 st Reader	Oppose. Hugely expensive & open ended. Expands operations of the AG's office. Similar services are not available for US/MD citizens if encountering immigration problem in Canada/Mexico, etc.

HB 0018 SB 0154	Right to Counsel for Evictions. Sets up a Coordinator of Right to Counsel in AG's office. Est. a Task Force to designate community groups to provide outreach and legal representation and legal services to person/household facing eviction with incomes at/under 50% of MD median income; Est. a fund to receive funds from ANY SOURCE as well as State budget funds to provide these services.	JUD – Del. W. Fisher; JPC – Hearing 1/28 – 11 a.m. Str. Hettleman	1 st Reader	Note: Very similar to Right to Counsel for Immigrants under SB 0317. But it establishes a non-lapsing fund to carry out services and outreach by community groups. Question: Could George Soros or Big Tech contribute to these funds?
